2017

Warm Reception with The Vice President-Executive Dean for College of Nursing and Health Science in Flinders University

Monday morning, October 9, 2017, was the beginning of the Outbound Mobility Program activity to the College of Nursing and Health Science, Flinders University, South Australia. This year, there are three universities from two countries, namely Indonesia (UNAIR Faculty of Nursing) and China (Chongqing Medical University and Shandong University). In total there were 17 participants; 4 people from UNAIR (two students, two lecturers), 5 people from Shandong University (postgraduate students), and 8 people from Chongqing Medical University.

The group was welcomed by Alison Kitson as Vice President-Executive Dean for the College of Nursing and Health Science accompanied by two staff, Julian Grant and Karen Brown. The reception began with the introduction of Flinders University and three representatives from each university. After the introduction, the event was taken over by Julian Grant or usually called Juliana as the S2 program coordinator. He explained about Australia, Flinders University, and how they carried out learning at the College of Nursing and Health Science. Many things are interesting in the learning process, starting from the curriculum, how to teach, and the practice process. At Flinders, students are required to be active and already understand the material taught during the learning process. Lecturers will only ask "Are there questions for me about today's material?".

After learning in class, the group was taken on a tour around Sturt Campus to Main Campus on foot. Tired was not felt because of the beautiful scenery and the cold weather with a temperature of 13⁰C. At Main Campus, the group also had lunch together with the Halong Bay Vietnamese Salad menu. The day's agenda continues after lunch with a laboratory tour available at Flinders University. The first impression when entering the laboratory is cool and lots of equipment. The group also conducted laboratory simulations such as when Flinders students practiced.

With this outbound mobility program, it is expected that lecturers and students of the Faculty of Nursing can absorb as much knowledge as possible so they can actively participate in bringing UNAIR into a world class university.

Airlangga University FKp Exchange Program at JRCKICN

The UnairFKp Team 2017 Exchange Program has arrived at the Japanese Red Cross Kyushu International College of Nursing (JRCKICN) Fukuoka, a small city in the East Japan region, with a very magnificent campus built by renowned architects in Japan. This exchange was an implementation of a mutually agreed MoU, an agreed goal to increase Unair's visibility as one of the World Class Universities (in World Class University) in order to succeed the Unair Mission to collect the World 500 Rank in 2019.

The FKp team who departed this year was Dr. Ah. Yusuf (lecturer in psychiatric nursing), KusnulChotimah A2015, Maria Wahyu B19. The first day's activities were carried out with reception by JRCKICN President Yayoi Tamura, RN, PHN, Ph.D., by welcoming lunch to welcome campus facilities by Prof. Prof. Hashimoto, lecture on Disaster Nursing by Prof. Naoko Sugawara and ended with dinner with Prof. Toshiko Himeno, Prof. Yoshinaga and also Secretary General Ryozo Takeno on 2 November 2017. Not only was the JRCKICN President and staff welcomed, but the JRCKICN students also welcomed the exchange team kindly. They were very enthusiastic to participate with FKp students. The cold autumn felt warm because they were welcomed. A small town with a myriad of facilities and even that complements the warmth in Japan.

1st Implementation Outbound Mobility Program at La Trobe University Australia

The Faculty of Nursing has established good collaborations with several internationally renowned universities, one of them with La Trobe University Australia. This year is the first time UNAIR Faculty of Nursing conducts Exchange of Teachers and Students to La Trobe University Australia. On Monday, October 2, 2017, which coincided with the national batik day, the group consisted of one lecturer, IkaNurPratiwi, S.Kep., Ns., M.Kep and two FKP Airlangga students, NuningAfida (Nursing Masters students) and RahmadhantiNurFadila (Undergraduate Nursing Student) began treatment of mobility outbound programs at La Trobe University Australia. Meeting program at Latrobe University Australia's nursing and midwifery faculty located on the Bandoora campus, Melbourne, Victoria. In the activity to welcome the reception by Mr. Fergus Campbell as the clinical learning coordinator and Course Advisor (Student Mobility) explained the nursing curriculum, learning methods and academic activities as well as the clinics implemented at La Trobe University Australia's Nursing and Midwifery School in search of quality parables and ready for work they call " the unique Latrobe program ".

In this series of activities, a group from FKp UNAIR will be present to take a look at all clinical learning activities in several government network hospitals in the city known as "the most livable city in the world", at Royal Melbourne Hospital, North Hospital and Houses Alfred's illness. In addition, we participate in class activities, workshops, simulation laboratories, assessment laboratories and virtual learning activities that are implemented at La Trobe University Australia's Nursing and Midwifery Schools. Not to forget, the group was also invited to tour the campus including a visit to the library.

In line with Unair's vision to become a world-class university, the Faculty of Nursing at Airlangga University emphasized to actively participate in bringing UNAIR into the ranks of world-class universities. Through the mobility program, the program that is carried out by the Faculty of Nursing every year is expected to provide an increase in faculty efforts towards the Faculty of Excellence that supports UNAIR to become a world-class university.

1st Student & Staff Mobility Program ke Department of Nursing Universiti Malaya, Kuala Lumpur 1-13 Oktober 2017

After establishing cooperation that was legalized through the Memorandum of Understanding in early 2017, this time the Airlangga University Faculty of Nursing (FKpUnair) team visited the Nursing Department of Universiti Malaya (DoNUM) as a form of assistance one of the points in the memorandum of cooperation. This visit was a pleasant walk, facilitated by Ajan Asst. RawewanPilaikiat, KittisakKumpera and Miss RatthitimaEuipaiboonsawat

Diary Travel Exchange Lectures and Students at Malaya University

Airlangga University has a target to penetrate the world rank 500 as a world class university in 2019. The Faculty of Nursing also plays an active role in supporting the university. One of them is through teacher exchange activities. In 2017, the Faculty of Nursing, Airlangga University had an MoU in collaboration with Malaya University, Malaysia. In order to develop cooperation in the three Dharma Colleges between the two universities, they have agreed to the activities of the second exchange teacher from October 22 to November 2, 2018. The activity, which will be attended by two lecturers from the Department of Nursing, Mental Health and Community, discussed about the action plan further further related to the joint research research in 2019, nursing care in hospitals in Malaysia, and other academic activities. Malaya University (UM) is a public research university located in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and this University is a managed university in Malaysia.

Malaya University's history is rooted in Singapore by establishing King Edward VII Medical School on September 28, 1905. Malaya University was founded in 1949 October in Singapore by joining King Edward VII Medical School and Raffles College (founded 1929). On January 15, 1959, it was founded in Singapore and others in Kuala Lumpur. In 1960, the second government changed the two divisions of the University of Malaya to become a separate autonomous national university, located in Singapore (later to become the National University of Singapore) and the other in Kuala Lumpur (retaining the name of the University of Malaya). Legislation was passed in 1961 and Malaya University was established on January 1, 1962.

At present the University of Malaya has more than 2,500 faculty members. In 2012, Malaya University was granted an autonomous status by the Ministry of Higher Education. At present, the University is divided into 12 faculties, 2 academies and 3 centers, namely: Faculty of Law, Faculty of Engineering, Faculty of Dentistry, Faculty of Medicine, Faculty of Built Environment, Faculty of Economics and Administration, Faculty of Business and Accounting, Faculty of Education, Faculty of Science, Faculty of Language and Linguistics, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Faculty of Computer Science and Information Technology, Malay Study Academy, Academy of Islamic Studies, Cultural Center, Sports Center, and Foundation Study Center (Malaya University). In 2018, QS World University Rankings ranked UM ranked 87th in the world, ranked 24th in Asia, Ranking in Southeast Asia and top ranked educational institutions in Malaysia.

Having the opportunity to exchange teacher and students this year on an ongoing basis are 2 lecturers from the Department of Soul and Community and 4 students, each of which 2 students are students and 2 nurses. Two lecturers from the Department of Soul and Community are Dr. HanikEndangNihayati, SKep, Ns, MKep and Mrs. RistaFauziningtyas, SKep, Ns, MKep and from the Basic Department, KMB and Critical are Dr. Kusnanto, SKp, MKes. While the exchange master students have the opportunity to receive are Gabby NovikadartiRahmah and AyesieNatasaZulka whose age are Nursing Masters students in class 10. Whereas from continuous exchange S1 students can be exchanged with TimotiusDwiKurnianto and YennyParamita.

Departing from Juanda Terminal 2 by Lion we depart at 10:00 and arrive at Kuala Lumpur International Airport (KLIA) at 13.45 and there is no time difference between Indonesia and Malaysia. Arriving at the airport we follow the directions for baggage claim. The experience of using this Lion airline must be landing at terminal 1 or KLIA only and not KLAI 2 so it is a bit complicated we have to go through a series of security checks and the KLIA airport system first. After that, we must pass through the Malaysian Immigration examination section. Finally, we have to travel using the free Aero Train KLIA 1 airport facilities which will take you to the baggage claim and then to the KLIA exit.
